

Curriculum Vitae

David Bily BLA MASLA

Landscape Architect BSLA
Golf Course Architect EIGCA
born in 1968 in Edmonton, Canada

married, two daughters

With considerable international experience, David brings to the team his skill in planning and design as well as knowledge in golf and environment.

Education

- 2001 Masters in Landscape Architecture (MASLA)
The University of British Columbia, Canada
- 1998-99 School of Architecture
Technical University of Nova Scotia, Canada
- 1992 Bachelor in Landscape Architecture (BLA)
The University of British Columbia, Canada
- 1990 Architecture Studies at DIS, Denmark

Professional Experience

- 2006 - Partner with Steiner & Partner
Landschaftsarchitektur GmbH, Thun
- 2004-05 Director of Cité Verte Design Studio, Neuchâtel
- 2002-03 VW Architectes, Rougement
- 2001-02 Planum, La Chaux-de-Fonds
Chanel-Girardet Architectes, Morges
- 2000-01 Green City Design Collaborative, Vancouver
- 1997-98 Viticulture Apprentice, Domaine des
Biolles, Founex
Gardener, The Gardeners' Corner Store,
Melbourne
- 1991-96 Forma Design Inc., Vancouver

Mandates

- 2018- Member of Sustainability Committee for the European Institute of Golf Course Architects
- 2018- Member of the European Institute of Golf Course Architects (EIGCA)
- 2016- Lecturer on Environmental Policy for the Swiss PGA Golf Director Programme
- 2012 - Instructor for the Turf Grass Specialist Diploma for JardinSuisse (Fribourg Agricultural Institute, Grangeneuve)
- 2011 - Lecturer in golf course architecture and best practice management for the Swiss PGA
- 2008 - Accredited verifier (GEOSA) for the GEO
Foundation
- 2001- Member of the Swiss Federation of Landscape Architects (BSLA)

A responsible, innovative and "less is more" design philosophy helps integrate human interventions into the landscape and bring us closer to a more symbiotic relationship with the natural environment.